“Real Problems, Real People, Real Change”
Isaiah 58:1-11

- I. Introduction: Is yours a life of trivial pursuits or worthy achievements?

- II. These are real problems – with many different causes.

- III. These are real people – not faceless statistics
 - A. Someone’s mother, father, child - like the Egongu family

 - B. God identifies with poor and hungry people.

- IV. The path to real change
 - A. God acts on behalf of the hungry.
 - He acts directly as sovereign ruler
 - He acts through his prophets and his faithful people.

 - B. Both love and justice demand that we come to the aid of the poor and hungry.

- V. Conclusion
