God's Word to Feminists and Chauvinists Genesis 1:26-31, 2:18-25 Our World Belongs to God 47

- I. Introduction: What will her future be like?

- II. One sex may not look down on the other. We respect each other as equals.
 - A. The Biblical basis: Male and female bear God's image.

 - B. The long history of low regard for women.

 - C. A Biblical perspective: Partners in serving God

 - D. Feminists have a tendency to belittle men, and the entertainment world has followed suit.

- III. Our roles are to conform to God's gifts and commands.
 - A. The Genesis mandate to populate the earth.
 1. Does the trend to have fewer children violate this mandate?

 2. Don't belittle the important task of raising the next generation!

 - B. The Genesis mandate to men and women to manage and develop God's world together allows for a great deal of flexibility in roles based on God-given qualities.

- IV. Conclusion: In summary...
