

Message Outline: “You Give Them Something to Eat”

- I. Introduction: A tiresome life of insecurity and uncertainty

- II. Where Christ directs us: A path of tireless compassion.
 - A. The disciples’ reaction: What can we possibly do?

 - B. The setting: weary of ministering to the endless needs

 - C. Jesus’ compassion spurs him on.

- III. How do we get there?
 - A. Recognize Christ’s mission: To redeem and restore life

 - B. Our mission: Bring to Christ our limited resources, use our knowledge to help people make the most of what they have, and instill hope in God

- IV. Conclusion: We have more available than we often realize.