

April 11, 2021 - 10:00 a.m.

“Our Resurrection Bodies”

1 Corinthians 15:20-24; 35-44; 50-53

I. Introduction: Christ’s resurrection and ours.

II. This physical, material God-created world is our rightful home.

A. We were created to be physical (embodied) persons.

B. Will our life as bodiless souls in heaven be for a time or forever? Is it the ideal or less than ideal?

III. God’s timetable for the resurrection of the body

A. Immediately when we die? Or when Christ returns?

B. Our condition while in heaven (2 Cor. 5)

IV. What type of bodies will we have?

A. The analogy of the seed and the plant it produces.

B. The ‘natural body’: perishable, dishonorable, weak.

C. The ‘spiritual body’: physical yet imperishable, glorious, empowered

V. Conclusion: Our resurrection bodies are for life in God’s restored creation.

